Congrats to everyone, we're looking forward to a great new year!

5) Old Business:

PAC Scholarship - The PAC approved a $500.00 scholarship to be awarded in June of 2020. The Recipient was Erin Baker. Once we have confirmation of school registration a cheque will be written. A thank you letter from the school has been requested for our records.

Fundraisers:

- a) Tabled now, due to the uncertainties and challenges that are presented with the current Covid-19 situation. To readdress in the New Year.

Teacher requests: Mr. Anderson has put the word out to teachers to get their requests in and we hope to have an update for the next meeting!

5) DPAC update: Unfortunately Peter Jory did not make the DPAC meeting so there is no district update.

6) New Business:

7) Principal Report: Teachers and students are getting settled into their routines. The new info management program is still proving to be a challenge with attendance and interim reports.

Teachers will be contacting parents in the coming weeks, likely by email.

Grade 9-10 volleyball has been running practices with Mr. Fazan and Ms. Matias however due to Covid it looks like league play will not happen this year.

Photo day was Oct 28 and retakes are Nov 03.

Grad meetings have begun and plans are being made, what will happen in the spring is still up in the air.

Orange shirt day was a great experience for all.

The Terry Fox run was on Oct 01 and the school raised $1800.00! Way to Go!

Oct 23 is a pro-day - Mr. Anderson and Mr. Matheson will be organizing lockers for the kids! (woo hoo!)

The Careers department is bringing Avalanche Canada, Junior Achievement, Okanagan College. They will be visiting either face to face or via teams.

Term one ends Nov 05, Term two begins Nov 09. Report cards will be going home Nov 19.
